In beautiful Vaals you imagine yourself on a beautiful holiday abroad. That's no wonder: in a single step you are in Germany or Belgium. The people of Limburg are justifiably proud of this unique southern tip of the Netherlands. If you follow the red-headed SBB posts, you'll see why: the views from the Vaalserberg towards the Vijlenerbos are spectacular. You can drink a nice cup of coffee on the highest mountain in the country: the Vaalserberg. You can also easily park here.
