The 15th century Vaalsbroek Castle is located in the southernmost point of the Netherlands. A large estate, a park with ponds and centuries-old chestnut trees characterize this place. This walking route takes you through the beautiful area behind Vaalsbroek Castle. The castle has a special location, namely in the middle of the slope of a hill. This area will surprise you with its beauty and variety. You have, among other things, a beautiful view over the South Limburg hills. You will discover the Vaals Museum and Vaalsbroek Castle from a short distance. You can park at Vaalsbroek Castle. The route can be followed via the green posts.
