The Kelmonderbos route takes you through the beautiful area around Kelmond and Klein-Genhout. After departure you walk through the Beekse buildings, but soon you discover the special nature along the Keutelbeek. The walking route then takes you through a beautiful park, forests, avenues and (standard) orchards. Culturally, the diversity is also great: in addition to sunken roads, you pass through the two hamlets of Kelmond and Klein-Genhout, past old farms and real Limburg half-timbered houses. Other monumental buildings along the route are Huize Genbroek and the St. Hubertusmolen. In the Kelmonderbos, numerous springs feed a water stream that ripples towards Beek.
