The grand city of Maastricht is always a pleasant place to walk, but the lesser-known countryside also provides you with a nice outdoor experience. On the Maastricht Blauw walking route you will discover the Sint-Pietersberg: Fort Sint-Pieter, the dense green forests that completely isolate you from the city, and the wide grassy slopes, where orchids bloom in summer and teeming with butterflies. Of course you follow the Maastricht Blauw route via the blue posts. You start and end at chalet Bergrust, where you can enjoy your coffee with a beautiful view.
