If you're talking about Landgraaf, you're talking about Pinkpop. Also during the rest of the year, when the pop festival does not turn the town into a large party area, the area around the famous Megaland is a nice place to stroll around. You can enjoy the Strijthagerbeekdal in peace and quiet, with its castle Strijthagen and its rustling trees and babbling brook. An extra nice trip on your walking route is family amusement park Mondo Verde. You follow this route via the red posts with the blue band. You can park a stone's throw from the route on Strijthagermolenweg or Einsteinstraat.
