

Trailrun Kunderberg

 Running trail
→ 8.3 km

Start- and endpoint

Sillenweg , 6367 Voerendaal,
Netherlands

Level of difficulty

Moeilijk

You are about to discover the Trailrun Kunderberg. The Kunderberg consists of forests, sunken roads and the famous calcareous grasslands where orchids thrive. Also typical are the grafts, terraces on a slope to prevent erosion. Trail running means 'off-road running', through nature, over narrow paths (trails) and natural obstacles such as hills, rocks and streams. Running with a playful character, where you want to experience nature up close. The Kunderberg is ideal for a lovely round of trail running. The distance of the route is just over 8 kilometers and if you follow the red posts you will automatically return to the starting point of the Trailrun.
