If you walk uphill from Houthem to Groot Haasdal, don't forget to look back for a spectacular view over the beautiful village, along the course of the Geul. With St. Gerlach Castle and the stately St. Gerlachus Church, this town is a true jewel in the beautiful hilly landscape. The area consists of vast green fields with playful groups of trees here and there. There is ample parking in Houthem and this walking route is also easily accessible by train. You follow the route via the black posts, after which you drink a nice cup of coffee in the center.
