

De Schepenroute WR7 Nuth

 Walking route
→→ 4.2 km

Start- and endpoint

Allee , 6363 Wijnandsrade,
Netherlands

Level of difficulty

Makkelijk

The town of Wijnandsrade is known for its majestic castle, first mentioned in the twelfth century and still worth mentioning today. This walking route allows you to admire its splendor.

Then the red posts lead to the hamlet of Swier over winding paths along beautiful views.

When you return to your car, which you could easily park at the castle, you can of course drink a cup of coffee in that unique entourage.
