 Walking route
→ 4.5 km

Start- and endpoint

Kapelaan Houbenstraat 6,
6285 AB Epen

Level of difficulty

Moeilijk

This challenging walking route of about 4 kilometers takes you from one picturesque village, Mechelen, to another, namely Epen. Here you can enjoy the most beautiful views of the South Limburg hills every season. You will visit the Schweiberger Bos, among other things. You will also go along part of the Dal Bissenweg, where the Landeus brook rises between the hamlets of Dal and Bissen. This area is definitely worth a visit, because of the varied landscape and the fairytale hiking trails. There are various parking options and catering establishments in both Mechelen and Epen. The route can be followed via the green posts.
