Start- and endpoint

Kerkveldweg 1, 6374 LE Landgraaf, Netherlands

Level of difficulty Makkeliik

This short walking route in the municipality of Landgraaf takes you from Waubach towards the German border at Rimburg. Anyone walking through Rimburg will soon forget the time and the crowds. The old village owes its name to Rimburg Castle, which is located just over the German border. During this route, however, you will simply stay in the Netherlands, where you will come across the Watertoren campsite and Ipomal gallery. The route can be followed via the red posts. Parking is possible at the campsite, where you can also go for a drink.
