If you are looking for a cozy Limburg village, then Bocholtz is the place to be: the people are involved, the environment is green and varied and the center is small, but cozy.

This route takes you through the beautiful area around Bocholtz. You have a beautiful view over the South Limburg hills. You will discover, among other things, the sixteenth-century Kasteel de Bongard with its striking brick and marlstone layers.

In Bocholtz there are plenty of catering establishments for a nice cup of coffee. You can park in the center of Bocholtz. There is also plenty to do for the children, because the route passes close to Nature Playground Bard Dubi.
