

Wandelroute - Simpelveld - Het Romeinse landschap in Bocholtz

Walking route

→ 14.0 km

Start- and endpoint

Wilhelminastraat, Bocholtz,
Simpelveld

Level of difficulty

Moeilijk

Stroll through the countryside in Bocholtz and discover the influences of its rich Roman past . Even for the view, the tone was set two thousand years ago. Taste Roman bread , understand Roman architecture and discover the site of one of the most important finds of the Roman era . When the Romans came, everything changed. This certainly applies to Bocholtz, the place with the highest 'villa density'. Here they built impressive mansions, introduced us to large-scale agriculture in this fertile landscape, brought their own religion and buried the ashes of their dead in beautiful ash boxes. You can park at the parking lot on Wilhelminastraat in Bocholtz.
