This route for the whole family leads you through a beautiful area in and around Valkenburg. The area is green and picturesque and includes a few (gentle) ascending hills for the novice mountain biker. This route starts at the Shimano Experience Center (Par'Course), where you can find everything you need for a perfect bike ride. With a length of approx. 16 km, this route is a variation on the existing Valkenburg Houthem route and is suitable for both youngsters and families with smaller children.

Halfway (just before the A79), this route can be shortened to a route of 10 km.
