52062 Aachen, Germany

Level of difficulty

Heel makkelijk

Welcome to beautiful South Limburg and for this route to nearby Aachen. This city really needs no further explanation. There is plenty to discover and admire. This route is a nice city walk through intimate streets, beautiful parks, past monuments and old buildings such as the Dom and the Town Hall. You certainly won't be bored. Note: the route is not signposted. But you can also download a separate route description when downloading (see under 'Download'; under 'Print PDF'). The starting point for this short walk (2 km) through the historic center of Aachen is the centrally located Eisenbrunnen.
