What gives you more relaxation than letting the peaceful South Limburg landscape glide past you high from the back of your horse?

On this equestrian route you will discover the small villages of Bingelrade and Jabeek: hidden gems near the German border, far away from traffic and crowds.

Visit the authentic village brewery De Maar and taste the four original specialty beers from this region. Get out of your car and onto your horse at the starting point on the Quabeeksweg in Bingelrade.
