The green hills, sunken roads and babbling brooks with the kingfishers on the overhanging tree branches reveal that you are in South Limburg. Via the red posts you follow the ancient valley of the Geul from the beautiful village of Mechelen. Both in Mechelen and in Party you can park well and you will find nice restaurants to start or end the walking route. You can get to know the traditional culture and religious heritage of this region by visiting the Wittem Monastery. At this pilgrimage site you will also find the library and the monastery garden.
