Moeilijk

As the intersection between the Netherlands, Germany and Belgium, the Drielandenpunt is of course a unique point on the map, but did you also know that this place in Vaals is decorated with the best activities? On the high Vaalserberg you will find a labyrinth, no fewer than two watchtowers and various catering establishments. You can also easily park your car there.

The best thing about Vaals is the beautiful nature and the view of the rolling green hills, which you get to know well on this breathtaking walking route. Follow the blue posts to discover the most beautiful trails.
