West of Gulpen you will find a beautiful agricultural area full of half-timbered farms, grassy meadows and road crosses and chapels that breathe the Catholic experience of the population. In this area are the hamlets of Reijmerstok and Terlinden, through which this walking route takes you. Parking is easy at cafe A Gen Ing, where you can also enjoy a nice meal or drink. This is where you start your journey along the yellow posts. If you like to take a break along the way to recuperate, you can go to De Zeute Aardbei for a delicious waffle with fresh strawberries.
