Between the Heuvelland highlights Wijlre and Eys lies the picturesque town of Elkenrade. This hamlet is beautifully situated amidst the rolling hills with their undulating lawns, where the sheep graze in summer.

From this walking route along the green posts, it is only a small detour to the Brand Bierbrouwerij and to the Kunst- en Collectiehuis in Wijlre. In Elkenrade it is also easy to park at the Moorenheideweg and you will find the nicest cafes to enjoy a cup of coffee.
