 Walking route
→→ 7.4 km

Start- and endpoint

Kersboomkensweg / Allee in Wijnandsrade

Level of difficulty

Makkelijk

Winding paths, wide vistas and waving cornfields can be found on the Dwarf Route. Your amazement already starts at the starting point, where you can park your car at the stately Wijnandsrade Castle. From there you follow the blue posts through the countryside with its beautiful nature. You can take a breather and relax on the many benches or at the hiking café Blauwe Steen near the pleasant town of Nuth.
