Start- and endpoint

Treinstation, stationstraat te
Susteren

Level of difficulty

Makkelijk

On this detour through the IJzerenbosch you will experience the unspoiled nature east of Susteren. This forest has a very varied vegetation: fresh green deciduous trees, open spaces with layers of herbs and shrubs and a carpet of wood anemones, spotted arum and slender primrose. It is therefore no wonder that numerous butterflies, grasshoppers and tree frogs feel at home here. Tired walkers will not be short of anything either, thanks to the coffee house, where you can also get a delicious piece of Limburg pie in addition to coffee. This walking route is easily accessible from the train station in Susteren and can be followed via the knots loop signs: 47-44-33-46-38-39-40-10-12-31-44-47.
