The walking area around Slenaken is definitely worth a visit. This cross-border walking route takes you through the area south of Slenaken, through the wooded area of the Onderste Bos. Moreover, during this round you will cross the Belgian border, in the direction of Teuven. This walk through the hills is a challenge, with a length of about 7 kilometers, but you will be amazed by the beautiful views over the South Limburg hills. You can start the route in Slenaken, where you can also park. The route can be followed via the red posts.
