The south of Valkenburg is bursting with spectacular attractions for the whole family. On the Wilhelminaberg you will find the spectacular Agogo with its incredibly wide range of options for unforgettable group activities and its restaurant on the mountain top with a view over the beautiful marl town. If you follow this walking route further to Oud Valkenburg, you will find the architectural splendor of Schaloen Castle, Schaloen watermill and the H. Johannes de Doperkerk. Nature lovers also get their turn on the beautiful path along the friendly rippling Geul, where the shore plants bloom and the dragonflies dance over the water.

You can easily park your car in Valkenburg.
