If you are in South Limburg, the hiking area around Slenaken is something you should not miss. The hillside forests there are home to numerous species of animals and plants.

This walking route takes you through the area north of Heijenrath towards the hamlet of Waterop, to Beutenaken, where the Gulp flows behind the houses.

During this difficult walk of about 7 kilometers you will encounter wide views of the South Limburg hills. You can start and park in Heijenrath. The route can be followed via the green posts.
