The hamlet of Weustenrade is sheltered in a valley between densely packed trees. You will find this hidden gem on the Laurentiusplein route. From Voerendaal you head north, past farms and groves, where the Cortenbacherbeek and the Retersbeek ripple past. You just have to follow the black posts through this green area. Back in Voerendaal there is also a lot to see: what about Cortenbach Castle and the stately St. Laurentius Church? Afterwards you can of course drink a delicious cup of coffee with a view of the park at the lunchroom and restaurant De Koffiemeuèle. You can park well in the center of Voerendaal, but this town is also easily accessible by train.
