From deciduous forests to grasslands, from fields to riverbanks, from pools to orchards and sunken roads: the Gulpdal has it all. During this walking route you will explore the area south of Heijenrath, a small Limburg hamlet with only 125 inhabitants. Here you will discover and explore the nature around Slenaken, which is not to be missed when hiking in South Limburg. In and around the sloped forests you will encounter all kinds of plants and animals. You can start and park in Heijenrath, at restaurant Gerardushoeve. The route can be followed via the black posts.
