Start- and endpoint

Baanweg, Schin op Geul,
Netherlands

Level of difficulty

Gemiddeld

Rolling hills, wide lawns, strips of rustling forest – you will find everything you are looking for in the beautiful South Limburg nature between Klimmen and Schin op Geul. The route runs through the elongated village of Walem and further passes the hamlets of Dolberg, Koulen and Opscheumer. At the crossroads in Walem is a Mariakapel dating from 1828. The route also passes the Krekelsbos, which has a special vegetation. The route runs along the Walemergats (a narrow footpath). Halfway along this path is the Middelpunt of South Limburg. You can strengthen the inner man in various nice cafes in Schin op Geul or in the picturesque Dolberg.
