De Huls is located on the edge of the charming steam town of Simpelveld: a high plateau from which you look steeply down into the village. The view is unforgettable! On this walking route you will also get to know the rural landscape to the north of this town. You explore the lovely fields and fields, which are a feast for the eyes, especially in summer. There is always room to park on the Huls plateau. Then you only have to follow the blue posts for a walking experience with a magnificent panorama.
