The picturesque village of Eys is known for its glittering Eyserbeek, the cozy living room café Bie de Tantes and the Eyserbosweg, where professional cyclists are hard at work during the Amstel Gold Race. This walking route shows you the most beautiful views and the nicest passages through the green hills, while the brook gently ripples along your way. Follow this route via the blue posts and park your car in Eys. Strong appetite on the road? The brasserie and terrace of the Eyserhof golf course welcome not only golfers, but also hungry walkers.
