The big city of Maastricht no place for mountain bikers? Think again! The MTB Route Maastricht starts in the Amby quarter and from there it takes you across the magnificent natural scenery of Bemelen, Gronsveld and Reijmerstok. You, for instance, get through the lush Savelsbos forest: a densely wooded area with beautiful trees, rustling bushes and flint stone traces. To preserve the forest, we kindly request that you stay on the paths. This mountain bike route is part of a 500 km long signposted network throughout Zuid-Limburg. This route manages to stay away from the toughest climbs, which makes it accessible to everyone.
