Bocholtz is of course a beautiful village, but if you walk a little further, you will discover the hidden gem Bocholtzerheide. This little sister of Bocholtz is located in a wonderfully quiet area, close to the German border, with a beautiful view of the vast landscape. Along the way you look for the different gnomes on the route. Can you find them all? This easily accessible walking route just taps into Bocholtz, so that you can reach the nicest restaurants with just a short trip to the center. Park your car at the intersection Heiweg-Molenweg and follow the red posts.
