Start- and endpoint

Wilhelminastraat 32, 6351 GN
Bocholtz, Netherlands

Level of difficulty

Makkelijk

If you have parked your car in the cozy center of the village of Bocholtz, your discovery starts with the view of the stately rectory of H. Jacobus de Multiple and the multitude of catering establishments. Make sure to save a spot for lunch on the beautiful Farm Terrace Scholtissenhof. The red posts of the walking route then take you past the sixteenth-century Bongard Castle and past the Bard Dubi Nature Playground, where your children can climb and clamber and you can relax in Park Bocholtz.
